

Freshers' Fest 2015

Fun, Frolic, Smiles and rejuvenated Spirits marked the start of the academic session for the new comers at Global Institutes, Amritsar. Continuing with the proud tradition of the Institute, senior students and newcomers mingled with each other at the freshers' party held this weekend in the campus . The senior batch whole heartedly extended a warm welcome to their junior counterparts. The auspicious day began with lighting of the lamp. Dr. B.S. Chandi, Chairman, Global Institutes, in his welcome speech, congratulated the organizing students for the wonderful arrangements. Soon after the inauguration, the program kick-started with a ramp walk in which many contestants vied for the Ms. & Mr. Fresher 2015 title. The contest included several rounds involving, ramp walk, Quiz and the like, which wove the magic of laughter, fun and joy into the event. The mesmerizing music, songs, flash freezing lights and the exuberant students were the defining moments in the party. It was the day of love, affection, trust and above all the bond of togetherness and belongingness. Students including freshers and seniors gave amazing performances in Solo Dance, Group Dance and Singing. The ambiance was electrifying during the performances. It was an ecstasy filled day, in which the freshers got an opportunity not only to showcase their talents and but also to interact with the senior colleagues from other programs. Finally the program ended on a musical note, leaving behind memories that will be cherished forever.

