

Guest Lecture on Campus to Corporate

Lt. Col. R. Ravindra (Retd.) Senior Manager HR from Khanna Paper Mill delivered a guest lecture on “Campus to Corporate” to MBA students in the Global Institute of Management. He spoke in detail on the importance of employability, Enterprise and Entrepreneurial skills.

He explained to the students what type of skills an employer expects from their employees. Moreover he elaborated different concepts such as self awareness, social awareness, self confidence, work/life balance, corporate awareness and basic rules when students join any organization.

